ADMISSION CRITERION TO TECHNICAL, VOCATIONAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING (TVET) INSTITUTIONS

The Ministry of Education and Sports (MoES) has planned to decentralize admissions according to region in Technical, Vocational Education and Training (TVET) Institutions for the National Certificate (NC) and Uganda Community Polytechnic Certificate (UCPC).

In this regard, an admission criterion has been provided to guide the implementation of the reforms in the TVET Policy (2019), which emphasize the accessibility and flexibility of admissions to TVET Institutions.

In an effort to build nationwide acquisition of skills for productivity acceleration, the MoES has provided requirements to guide on admission in each category of institution and this is open to any interested person(s).

Please refer to the table below for details of the above-mentioned requirements.

Category Level	Category of Institution	Requirements
Skills Development Center	Technical schools	- Any interested Ugandan - P.7 certificate holders regardless of the scores - Recognition/Assessment of prior relevant skills - Recognition of Literacy/Arithmetic/ICT and or any Basic Vocational skill - Valid Identification Card/ Letter from Local Council
	Community Polytechnics
